Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge your letter of May 29th, in which you returned to us the receipt which came a few days after you made the remittance to us for your Life premium. However, I would advise that the receipt and the form which you returned to us for signature was merely a notice and not the Company's official receipt. We have ordered a duplicate receipt from our Home Office and this will be forwarded to you as soon as received.

In the meantime, you may hold this letter as an acknowledgement of the receipt of your remittance of $18.60 continuing it to May 1927.

Yours truly,

S. R. Plattenburg, Cashier
